FOUR VERTICALS OF VIDYA BHARATI

VIDWAT PARISHAD - plays a major role to prepare master trainers for various dimensions and to communicate its philosophy to the society.

SANSKRITI SHIKSHA SANSTHAN based in Kurushetra, works for research on our literature, tradition and culture and its publication. Another important work here is to conduct an annual all India exam for students, teachers and parents on our culture and history. More than 20 lakh participate.

BHARTIYA SHIKSHA SHODH SANSTHAN is the research institute based in Lucknow. It houses a well equipped library and publishes a bi-annual journal giving research articles. University of Lucknow and Kanpur have recognized the institute as a Centre for Research in Education.

ALUMNI with a strong network this wing keeps track of our old students who are in India and abroad. An exclusive portal has been created where they communicate and keep all informed of their achievements. (www.vidyabharatalumni.org)

SOME UNIQUE FEATURES

SAINIK VIDYA MANDIR, the first of its kind to train youth for joining the armed forces, is coming up in Shikarpur, Bulandsahar in UP. And even if they do not join the armed forces, they will become successful citizens dedicated to the service of the nation.

MANAK PARISHAD has the responsibility to ensure that with the increase of number of schools and its students the quality of education is not hampered..

TEACHERS TRAINING Teachers are given the know-how of latest technology for teaching and are made aware about their role with regards to society, culture and nation with the objective of bringing out national feeling among the students.
